

Punctuation Stories, unlaminated cards

Model : La42e

Age Category : Lower Elementary

These clever stories are sure to help children remember the role of each punctuation mark. Nine different stories are included with punctuation mark cards in colors that match the stories. This material is printed on quality cardstock ready for you to trim and laminate yourself.

Price : $5.00

My name is Question Mark. I am colored blue because blue is a thoughtful color. My shape is the shape of a question in your brain going up over the top, to the front, turning into an answer in your mouth. My partners are who, what, when, why, where, does, will and have.

Availability: This product was added to our catalog on